About — Eric D. Lehman

The city of Bridgeport is located in Fairfield County in the southern part of the state on the Long Island Sound. It is Connecticut's most populous city. Settled in the mid-17th century as part of the township of Stratford, Bridgeport incorporated as a town in 1821 and a city in 1836. While early settlers farmed and fished, they soon took advantage of their location on Black Rock Harbor and ...
