Boyer, Enduring Vision, 5/e - Chapter Summaries

As we conclude this history of America and its people, what is the "enduring vision" of our title? There is, of course, no single vision, but many. Nor is there a vision of effortless, foreordained national destiny, but rather of successive generations' difficult, often frustrating struggles to define what their common life as a people should be.

The Enduring Vision is the textbook I used in my AP class. My teacher gave it the nickname of "Enduring Boredom" or the "cure for insomnia". To be completely honest, I fell asleep multiple times trying to read that textbook and I found that taking breaks helped keep me awake. There are many, many different textbooks used to teach APUSH.
